

Darleen Armour is a Managing Director for the Financial Valuation and Consulting practice. She is responsible for leading complex financial analyses and multidisciplinary valuation assignments for public and private companies. Ms. Armour leads the Technical Committee for the national Financial Valuation and Consulting practice.

Ms. Armour has been in the valuation business since 1987. Her experience includes the preparation of Fairness and Solvency Opinions and the valuation of businesses, intangible assets, and securities for buy/sell consideration, financial reporting, personal and corporate tax reporting, and shareholder dispute. Prior to joining Marshall & Stevens, Ms. Armour has served as a Director of BDO's Valuation and Business Analytics practice, a Senior Vice President at FMV Opinions, Inc., and as a Senior Vice President at Houlihan Lokey Howard & Zukin, Inc.

Ms. Armour has earned an MBA from University of California, Los Angeles and a BA from California State University, Fullerton. She is an Adjunct Professor at California State University, Fullerton teaching graduate level Business Valuation/Mergers & Acquisition course. She holds the designation of Senior Accredited Appraiser of the American Society of Appraisers and leads the Business Valuation Committee for the Los Angeles ASA Chapter.