

Ralph Consola is a Principal, Executive Managing Director and Member of the Board of Directors of Marshall & Stevens Incorporated. He leads the West Region for Marshall & Stevens and is responsible, nationally, for all business development and marketing.

He assist clients with planning, negotiating and reporting of mergers, acquisitions, and divestitures, corporate tax restructurings, financings/recapitalizations, estate tax planning and reporting, insurance placement, and shareholder dispute. Services provided include Fairness and Solvency Opinions and the valuation of businesses, debt and equity instruments, tangible and intangible assets to public and private corporations, shareholders, directors and trusted advisors in a wide range of industries. Mr. Consola joined Marshall & Stevens in 1999. He led the national Structured Finance Practice from 2017 through 2019.

He earned a B.S., Mathematics and M.B.A., Finance, Loyola Marymount University.