

Shirley Chin, Vice President, Tax, SUNRUN INC.

Shirley Chin is the Vice President, Tax at Sunrun Inc., where she enjoys a broad tax practice, leading Sunrun's tax controversy and litigation, tax policy, tax operations, and transaction tax issues relating to new market and project finance strategies in financing and developing residential solar projects. Prior to joining Sunrun, Shirley spent ten years at the IRS Office of Chief Counsel, Large Business and International Division, auditing and litigating corporate, partnership and international tax issues. She started her legal career at the New York office of Davis Polk & Wardwell, where she practiced corporate transactional law.

Shirley was born in Rangoon, Burma, grew up in Hong Kong, and immigrated to the United States when she was 10 years old. After learning English from voraciously reading Beverly Cleary, Judy Blume and Laura Ingalls Wilder books, she went on to earn her undergraduate degrees at U.C.L.A in Economics/Business and Political Science. She spent a year as a tax accountant at Price Waterhouse, where she earned her C.P.A., and then her joint law and public administration degrees from the University of California, Berkeley School of Law, and Harvard University, John F. Kennedy School of Government.